ITINERARY:

Day 01 Arrival in Jabalpur, Drive to Kanha (130 kms / approx. 2.5 hours)

Upon arrival, meet our assistance and board the vehicle to drive to Kanha and check-in at your hotel. Kanha shelters one of the largest tiger's populations in the country. The forests here are vast, and while your chances of seeing a tiger are probably slightly slimmer than at nearby Bandhavgarh, they're still pretty good. Add to that the fact that you can really go deep into the forest, and you have a complete safari experience, rather than the rush-and-grab outings some complain of at Bandhavgarh. The Sal forests and vast meadows contain tigers and leopards and support huge populations of deer and antelope, including the extremely rare barasingha. You'll see plenty of langur monkeys, the odd gaur (Indian bison) and maybe even a family or two of wild boar. The park is also home to more than 300 bird species. Overnight stay in Kanha.

Day 02 Safari in Kanha

Early Morning proceed for a Jungle Safari in the park. Back to the hotel for Breakfast. Post lunch enjoy an evening Jungle Safari. Later enjoy dinner at the hotel. Overnight in Kanha.

Day 03 Kanha – Bandhavgarh (255 kms / approx 5 hours)

Early Morning proceed for a Jungle Safari in the park. Back to the hotel for Breakfast. Later drive to Bandhavgarh - A couple of days at Bandhavgarh almost guarantees you a tiger sighting in this relatively small park that boasts the highest density of tigers in India. As well as the star attraction, there are also more than 40 leopards and more commonly sighted animals such as deer, wild boar and langur monkey. Arrive and check-in at your hotel. Overnight stay in Bandhavgarh.

Day 04 Bandhavgarh

Early Morning proceed for a Jungle Safari in the park. Back to the hotel for Breakfast. Post lunch enjoy an evening Jungle Safari. Later enjoy dinner at the hotel. Rest of the day will be at leisure. Overnight in Bandhavgarh.

Day 05 Day at Leisure in Park

After breakfast, enjoy full day at leisure. Also, you may choose Elephant safari, which is really a rewarding experience, to follow the footsteps of the royal tigers sitting safely on the back of the elephant (Supplement cost apply for elephant safari). Overnight stay in Bandhavgarh.

Day 06 Drive from Bandhavgarh – Jabalpur (200 kms / approx. 4 hours)

After breakfast, proceed to the Jabalpur airport to board return flight back home.

End of Services.
